Fire Chief Welch reported that the fire hydrant at the Corner of Main & Oak was not in good order, and the Clerk was instructed to notify the Water Co.

Resolution No. 19

The following resolution was then read and introduced;
Whereas it has been brought to the attention of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi, that the Resolution heretofore passed on the 29th day of July, 1907 does not pledge the City to supply the required amount of money for the maintenance of the proposed Carnegie Library, and,

Whereas the uncompleted assessment for 1908 shows a valuation of $975,000

Now therefore be it resolved that we, the Trustees of the City of Lodi, do hereby pledge ourselves to provide a tax levy of One Million each one dollar of valuation, or such sum as will provide the sum of nine hundred dollars annually for the support of such Library.

The foregoing resolution was passed and adopted in regular session of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi this 20th day of July, 1908 by the following vote:

Ayes: J. M. Blodgett, G. E. Lawrence, C. A. Rich and L. Villinger.

Noes: None

Absent: F. O. Hale

I hereby sign, attest and approve of foregoing resolution this 20th day of July 1908.

G. E. Lawrence,

President of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi, and the Executor of said City

Attest: J. M. McMahon
City Clerk

No further business coming before the Board, it was moved, seconded and carried that this Board do now adjourn to reconvene on Monday evening, July 27, 1908.

Attest: J. M. McMahon
City Clerk
